

NEGRO CONGRESSMAN ELECTED IN CALIFORNIA

Patronize Our Advertisers — Their Advertising in this paper shows that they appreciate your trade.

Jackson Advocate

GOOD CONDUCT
WILL ALWAYS GAIN
YOU RESPECT.
Watch Your Public
Conduct.

Volume XVI—Number 2

Jackson, Mississippi, Saturday, November 17, 1962

PRICE TEN CENTS

George Meany Foundation Establishment Announced

GUNS BLAST LYNCH STREET BUSINESS ESTABLISHMENTS SATURDAY

ROME, Italy—Dr. Joseph H. Jackson, President, The National Baptist Convention U.S.A., Inc., is seen in private audience with Pope John XXIII in the Pontiff's private chambers. It is believed they discussed world peace, freedom, better human relations, and the world need for the influence and power of the Christian church. Dr. Jackson, attending the Vatican Council as an observer, has expressed great respect for the devoting and Christian spirit of the Pope. "We must not overlook the religious and spiritual values of other leaders and people who are not members of our particular church or denomination. For people of different groups are brought close together in their devotion to Christ and in loyalty to his Cross.

Eighteenth 4-H Club Round-Up Will Honor State Winners

Jackson, Miss. — Mississippi's Negro 4-H Club boys and girls who are state or district project record winners will be honored November 19 and 20 at the eighteenth annual Negro 4-H Club Round-Up in Jackson.

About 200 members and adults will attend the event. Sponsors are the Jackson Chamber of Commerce, several Negro businessmen in Jackson, and the Mississippi Council of

United Nations Hit S. Africa Race Policy

United Nations, N.Y. The United Nations General Assembly has recommended severe trade and diplomatic boycotts of South Africa with the aim of forcing an end to that country's white-supremacy policies.

If such punitive steps fail, the Assembly recommended, the Security Council should consider ordering South Africa expelled from the United

S. Africa Hits United Nations Sanction Plans

Johannesburg Government and opposition leaders have joined in denouncing as unfair and unreasonable the United Nations General Assembly's recommendation for economic and diplomatic sanctions against South Africa because of its racial segregation policies.

But liberal voices warned

(Continued On Page Five)

Revolution For Freedom For African Women On In Uganda

Kampala, Uganda. Africa is still a man's world. All the shouting about freedom leaves most women grubbing for food, carrying water and firewood on their heads, and being sold to their husbands.

But a gentle revolution is under way in Uganda, the latest African colony to become independent. A small group of women is leading a campaign to bring women into the new world of freedom.

British colonial officers, the churches, and a few progressive Ugandans have made some progress in emancipating women in the cities. In the rural areas, where 90 per cent of the population live, tribal customs condemn women to a life of toil and bearing children.

Uganda fathers still extract a "bride price" for their daughters from prospective husbands. In some places this may amount only to a goat and a few small presents. In northern Uganda it may run up to 10 or more head of cattle.

The bride, once paid for, be-

(Continued On Page Six)

Agriculturalists From Kenya Complete Studies At A&T

Greensboro, N. C. — Eleven agricultural officers from Kenya, Africa, who have been studying at A&T College during the past six months, left last week for their homeland with new concepts of America and its people and of the job back home. The group came here last July to study agricultural extension methods under a grant by the Agency For International Development (AID) under a coop-

(Continued On Page Five)

Quarter-Million Research Wing Being Occupied At Southern

Baton Rouge, La., Nov. 8—The Health Research Wing, a quarter-of-a-million dollar structure on the campus of Southern University, is now being occupied by University Professors engaged in Health Research or related areas of health, it has been announced by Dr. Felton G. Clark, president of Southern. Dr. Clark said that the spec-

(Continued On Page Six)

African Nat'l Congress Party Leader Jailed In S. Africa

Nelson Mandela Given Five Years by Special Court

Pretoria, South Africa Nelson Mandela, former underground leader of the banned African National Congress Party, was sentenced Wednesday to five years in jail for incitement and illegally leaving the country.

A special court sentenced Mr. Mandela to three years on the incitement charge and two years for leaving the country. The court magistrate said there was no doubt Mr. Mandela, known as "the black Pimpernel" because of the way in which he eluded police for more than a year, was "organizer, mouthpiece, and mas-

(Continued On Page Six)

The Church Of God In Christ To Name A New Leader

Fifty Fifth Holy Convocation To Be Held In Memphis

Memphis, Tenn. — An election to name a new leader will be the major business item facing delegates attending the 55th Holy Convocation of the Church of God in Christ, when it convenes here, in Memphis, November 25 to December 8 at 958 S. Mason Street.

The new elected leader will fill the vacancy created by the death of Bishop C. H. Mason, founder of the church. He was senior bishop and titular head

(Continued On Page Eight)

Police Reported Investigation Of Shootings On Lynch Street

Local Police officers and detectives were reported early this week as having launched an intensive investigation of the shootings, believe to have occurred late Saturday night, during which several business establishments owned and operated by Negroes of Lynch Street were hit.

Hardest hit during the shooting was the Jackson Central Insurance Agency and Lula Belle's Fashion Center both located in the Masonic Temple.

Several shots apparently fired from a small calibre rifle hit the plate glass window of the Jackson Central Insurance office located on the ground floor of the Masonic Temple next door to the Fashion Center. One large hole was found in the plate-glass window of the Fashion Center along with what appeared to be scattered smaller shots.

According to reports shots were also fired into a beauty

(Continued On Page Five)

Dr. George W. Lucas Chairman Central State College Board

Dr. George W. Lucas, a native of Collins, Mississippi and a graduate of Tougaloo Southern Christian College, was elected chairman of the Board of Trustees of Central State College, Wilberforce, Ohio at the Board's statutory meeting on November 1, 1962. Central State has a student body of 2,200, representing thirty-three states, the District of Columbia, the Virgin Islands and fourteen foreign countries.

Dr. Lucas attended Hopewell Vocational High School, Jackson College, Tougaloo College, Fort Wayne Bible Institute, Indiana University and the University of Chicago. He holds

(Continued On Page Seven)

National Business League Honors West Coast Affiliates

Washington, D. C. Nov. 10 — A group of Washington's top echelon business, professional and community leaders, and key government officials, joined the officers of the National Business League, at a reception, held at the Statler Hilton Hotel here this week, honoring three National Business League affiliates from the West Coast. The honorees were: Agamir Fouche, Chairman of the Board, George R. Vaughns, President and Jefferson A. Beaver, Execu-

(Continued On Page Two)

Dorothy Dandridge Ask Divorce To End Interracial Marriage

Dorothy Dandridge, Hollywood's first siren of color filed suit Friday in Superior Court for divorce from her popular Greek husband, restaurateur John (Jack) Denison.

The attractive singer-actress, currently appearing at the Club Chi Chi in Palm Springs, asked the court to end her interracial marriage to Denison, after three years, four months and one day. The honey-colored, brown-eyed beauty charged Denison,

Edith Sampson First Chicago Woman Judge

CHICAGO — Mrs. Edith Sampson, 60, former U.S. delegate to the U.N., was elected Tuesday to a post of municipal judge, marking the first time in this city's history a Negro woman had held such a post.

U. S. Court Asked To Name Master For Meredith Case

Master Would Take Evidence Regarding Governor's Compliance With Court Order

New Orleans, La. — A U.S. court has been asked to appoint a master to take evidence on

(Continued On Page Four)

Meredith Cuts Two Tests For Weekend Rest

Oxford, Miss. Nov. 12 — Negro student James Meredith was back on the campus of Ole Miss bright and early Monday morning after having cut two tests,

(Continued On Page Five)

Labor Mourns Death Of Mrs. Roosevelt

Washington, D. C. Nov. 12 — AFL - CIO President George Meany today issued the following statement on the death of Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt:

All the world mourns for Mrs. Roosevelt, and nowhere will her loss be more keenly felt than in the ranks of labor. This grace-

(Continued On Page Seven)

Jim Gilliam's Wife Files For Divorce Asks $800 Monthly Alimony From Dodger Star

Los Angeles, Calif. Nov. 12 — Jim "Junior" Gilliam, star infielder of the Los Angeles Dodgers, was this week trying to field a high-flying divorce suit baited at him by his wife of three years.

Mrs. Edwina Gilliam, 27, charged her husband with extreme cruelty. She asked the

(Continued On Page Five)

Negro Elected To Michigan Supreme Court

LANSING, Mich. — Otto M. Smith, a Negro Detroit resident, placed in state office by ex-Gov. G. Mennen Williams, was elected Tuesday to a full term on the State Supreme Court.

He had been serving a pro tem appointment. Two years ago Smith was elected state auditor general, after serving briefly on the state power commission.

Negro Elected Massachusetts Attorney Gen.

BOSTON — Massachusetts, a state with Negroes numbering only 2 percent of the total population, elected its first Negro attorney general this week. Edward T. Brooks, a Republican, was elected Attorney General.

Foundation To Further The Understanding Of Ethical Principles By Which Men Live

Foundation Created By Trade Union Friends Of AFL-CIO President

NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 8 — Establishment of the George Meany Foundation to "further the understanding of the ethical principles by which all moral men live" was announced here today. The foundation was created by trade union friends of the AFL-CIO president, and has already chosen its first two projects:

1. Sponsorship of one program each year in "The Eternal Light" television series, produced under the auspices of the Jewish Theological Institute and broadcast weekly over the National Broadcasting Company TV network. This year's program, devoted to the life of William Green, late president of the American Federation of Labor, will be seen on Sunday, November 2.

2. Sponsorship of a series of lectures at the Institute for Religious and Social Studies of the Jewish Theological Seminary of America. This series, under the general title of "The American Character: The Search for Self-Understanding," is already in progress.

The Meany Foundation has been established within the Herbert H. Lehman Institute of Ethics at the seminary.

George Harrison of Cincinnati, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, is president of the foundation. Joseph D. Keenan of Washington, secretary of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, is treasurer. M. S. Novik of New York, the AFL-CIO's radio and television consultant, is secretary.

The foundation, its sponsors

(Continued On Page Eight)

Negro American Labor Council Hears Meany Ans. NAACP Attack

NEW YORK — (AFL-CIO) President George Meany, speaking Friday night before a Negro audience, denied charges of discrimination in the labor movement and lashed out at Herbert Hill, labor secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Meany spoke at the convention of the Negro American Labor

Council. Today's scheduled speaker is Walter P. Reuther, head of the United Auto Workers. Referring to Hill, who has charged discrimination within the ranks of the International Ladies Garment Workers Union, Meany said: "When anyone tries to say that the trade unions are the chief barrier to the economic opportuni-

(Continued On Page Six)

Bishop Spottswood NAACP Board Head Urge More Troops For State

Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 12 — The use of government troops in Mississippi to protect Negroes trying to register as voters is being sought by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the association's board chairman said here Sunday.

Bishop Stephen G. Spottswood of the Fourth Episcopal District of the AME Zion Church said in an interview that the NAACP board at its monthly meeting in New York this week will discuss the protection of registrants and organizers of the voter registration drive among Mississippi Negroes.

Bishop Spottswood said the request for federal troops in various parts of Mississippi to avert what he called violent interference with voter registration is

(Continued On Page Five)

Negroes Back Democrat Party Rebuff Bid From Republicans

Washington, D. C. Nov. 10 — Negro voters throughout the country Tuesday gave the Democratic Party and President Kennedy a vote of confidence for the efforts in the last two years to extend to all Americans full civil rights and equality of opportunity.

None of the widely publicized Republican Presidential hopefuls, neither Governor Nelson

Rockefeller of New York, William Scranton of Pennsylvania nor George Romney of Michigan showed unusual vote getting ability in key Negro districts in Tuesday's election.

Louis Martin, Deputy Chairman of the Democratic National Committee said, "Our analysis of the voting pattern in key Negro districts across the na-

(Continued On Page Six)

First Congressman Elected West Of The Mississippi As Negro Negro Democrats Win High Posts

Washington, D. C., Nov. 12 — Chairman John M. Bailey of the Democratic National Committee said Wednesday: "Negro Democratic candidates across the nation wrote a new chapter in political history in Tuesday's election."

Democrat Otis Smith was elected to the Supreme Court in Michigan; Gerald A. Lamb was elected Treasurer of the State of Connecticut; Leroy A. Johnson was elected to the Georgia State Senate and Augustus F. Hawkins of Los Angeles became

(Continued On Page Two)